Part 2: Customs clearance

We hereby instruct Federal Express Europe Inc. (German branch) to perform customs clearance for our inbound FedEx shipments in accordance with the agreements defined more precisely here below. Federal Express Europe Inc. (German branch) is authorized to give a sub-power of attorney.

Shipments which can be exempted from duties and/or taxes

Shipments which, taking into account the documentation available during import, can be cleared without import duties and/or taxes being levied should be declared for free circulation with duty exemption. Where duties are subsequently assessed for these shipments, we will comply with our obligation to perform or, if FedEx disburses monies in this regard, release FedEx there from or reimburse disbursed amounts.

☐ Clearance for free circulation (with duties and taxes assessed)
All import duties accruing (duties, including any anti-dumping duties, VAT, etc.) are assumed by us and must be invoiced to us if necessary.
FedEx levies a fee of 8.00 Euros per additional line item for customs entries with more than five line items.

*Economic Operators' Registration and Identification number. For more information on EORI please go to www.zoll.de.
