

Fact Sheet

FedEx Express in Europe, Middle East, Indian Subcontinent and Africa (EMEA)

Overview

Across Europe, the Middle East, Indian Subcontinent and Africa, FedEx Express currently serves hundreds of cities and markets with its intercontinental and international express services. Home to the biggest hub outside of the US at Paris-Charles de Gaulle, FedEx Express is systematically building its network across the region through smart, strategic investments. This includes an enhanced next-business-day delivery service from Europe to major US East Coast cities and an International Economy service within Europe.

Fast Facts

Headquarters	Brussels, Belgium
Principal officer	Gerald P. Leary, President EMEA, FedEx Express
Countries and territories served	Approximately 123
Team members	15,260
Air operations	42 airports served
Vehicle fleet	Over 2,000
Main hub	Paris, Roissy-Charles de Gaulle
Air operations	49 aircraft including: 4 Boeing 777, 5 Boeing 757, 10 (McDonnell Douglas) MD-11, 5 Airbus A300-600, 3 ATP, 9 Aerospatiale ATR-72, 8 Aerospatiale ATR-42, 5 Embraer EMB120 Brasilia.
Stations	92
Call centers	19
Websites	fedex.com news.van.fedex.com (Global Newsroom) csr.fedex.com (FedEx Corporate Social Responsibility)