

We know your business. You know peace of mind.

When you're shipping just-in-time electronics, time-sensitive aerospace components, manufacturing equipment or confidential records, you want their progress followed by someone inside the operation so you'll know they've reached their destinations on time and intact. Gain an added layer of awareness when it matters most.

With FedEx Priority Alert™, a dedicated specialist who knows your business will manage your shipment activity and work directly with you to provide accurate, detailed tracking and monitoring information — plus around-the-clock support to help ensure that your critical products arrive as promised.¹

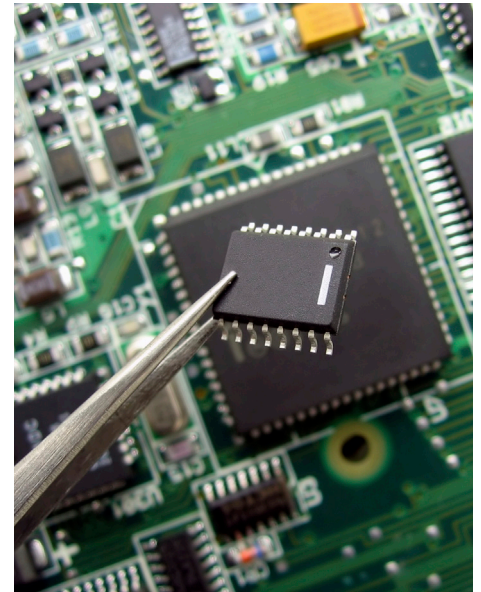

Attention. Assurance.

Your FedEx Priority Alert account is assigned to a dedicated global service analyst who understands your operational needs. Your specialist proactively monitors the status of your package and freight shipments, notifies you of any shipment risks or delays and determines and executes customized recovery procedures.

Priority placement. Your FedEx Priority Alert shipments receive priority boarding on our aircraft and, where available, priority clearance handling to ensure maximum time for clearance issue resolution.

Global connectivity. FedEx Priority Alert is available in more than 70 countries. Thanks to our extensive global distribution network, your shipments stay with us — from start to finish.

Convenience. Your FedEx Priority Alert shipments don't require any further processing than your other FedEx® shipments.

When it matters most.

The FedEx Priority Alert™ department is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week:
