

FedEx® Automated Pickup

If you're shipping regularly but not every day, FedEx Automated Pickup is the ideal solution for you. The FedEx automation system alerts us when you've created your first shipment of the day and need a pickup. We'll only come on days you need us, saving you time.

Who's eligible

- Customers who use a FedEx automation solution¹, and who have a FedEx account with a single pickup location.
- To initiate a pickup, you'll need to create and transmit your first shipment of the day before your designated daily cutoff time. (You'll get details on cutoff time during enrollment.)

What's the cost?

- It's free!

Stay in the loop

- You will receive daily email notifications to stay informed about your daily pickup status.
- If you have any issues with your service, contact your FedEx sales representative or contact us at fedex.com.

¹ Compatible form of automation solutions include FedEx Ship Manager™ at fedex.com, FedEx Ship Manager Lite, FedEx Web Services, and FedEx API.
