

Cambodia has established labour laws and a workforce focused on agriculture, manufacturing, and services. Wages, social security, and work permits are regulated nationwide.

Government/Agencies	What You'll Find Here
Ministry of Labor and Vocational Training (MLVT)	This site is the official portal of Cambodia's Ministry of Labour and Vocational Training, providing information on labour policies, workforce development, vocational training, public services, and official announcements related to employment and skills development.
National Social Security Fund (NSSF)	The National Social Security Fund (NSSF) portal provides information on Cambodia's social security programs, including health insurance, pensions, and occupational injury benefits, as well as registration and contributions for workers and employers.
Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation (MFAIC)	The MFAIC portal provides official guidance on visa types, application procedures, extensions, and consular services, and links to the official e-Visa portal for submitting applications, paying fees, and obtaining electronic visas before traveling to Cambodia. Investors can also access consular information relevant to business operations and managing foreign workforces.
General Department of Immigration (GDI)	The site provides information on entry requirements, e-Arrival forms, visa regulations, and residency or work permit compliance. Investors can use it to navigate immigration rules for business travel and managing foreign workforces.

*This content is provided for general informational purposes only and does not constitute tax, legal, or employment advice.