

Malaysia's economy is diversified, with strengths in electronics, oil & gas, and digital services. Government initiatives support Industry 4.0 and green tech.

Government / Agencies	What You'll Find Here
Ministry of Investment, Trade and Industry (MITI)	The MITI website is Malaysia's official portal for investment, trade, and industry policies. It offers investors access to trade regulations, industrial strategies, free trade agreements, and investment incentives—supporting business setup, expansion, and international market access in Malaysia.
Malaysia External Trade Development Corporation (MATRADE)	MATRADE supports investors by providing export promotion services, market intelligence, trade advisory, and access to Malaysian suppliers—helping businesses explore trade opportunities and expand globally.
Malaysian Investment Development Authority (MIDA)	The MIDA website is Malaysia's official investment promotion portal. It provides investors with information on investment opportunities, incentives, licensing, and sectoral strategies—supporting business setup, expansion, and facilitation across Malaysia's manufacturing and services sectors.
Department of Statistics Malaysia (DOSM)	DOSM provides authoritative data on Malaysia's economy, demographics, labor, trade, and sectors—supporting investors with insights for market analysis, risk assessment, and strategic planning.
Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM)	This official portal of Malaysia's central bank provides investors with key information on monetary policy, financial regulations, economic data, exchange rates, and financial market developments—supporting informed investment and financial decision-making in Malaysia.

Government / Agencies

What You'll Find Here

Royal Malaysian Customs Department

This website provides comprehensive information on import/export regulations, customs duties, tax exemptions, and trade facilitation. It helps investors understand customs procedures, compliance requirements, and incentives for manufacturing and export activities in Malaysia.

SME Corporation Malaysia \(SME Corp\)

This is the central platform for SME development. It offers investors insights into SME policies, financing schemes, capacity-building programs, and market access support—helping identify collaboration opportunities and understand Malaysia's SME ecosystem.

Ministry of Transport – Infrastructure

This site outlines Malaysia's land transport infrastructure projects, policies, and development plans—offering investors insights into opportunities in rail, road, and logistics infrastructure, including public-private partnerships and national connectivity initiatives.