Part 2: Customs Clearance

2.1. Order and authorization

We hereby authorize and instruct FedEx Express Deutschland GmbH to prepare and submit customs declarations for our incoming FedEx shipments on our behalf and for our account in accordance with the agreements specified in more detail below (direct representation in accordance with Article 18 of the Union Customs Code (Regulation (EU) No. 952/2013)) and to pay any import duties due to the customs authorities on our behalf. FedEx may charge a flat fee for this service. Details of how the flat fee is calculated can be found at <https://www.fedex.com/de-de/ancillary-clearance-service.html>. FedEx Express Deutschland GmbH is authorized to grant sub-authorizations.

2.2 Specific agreements regarding customs clearance

Please check the applicable boxes:

Clearance for free circulation (with duties and taxes assessed)

All import duties accruing (duties, including any anti-dumping duties, VAT, etc.) are assumed by us and must be invoiced to us if necessary. FedEx charges a surcharge from the sixth customs application item onwards. For more information, please visit our website. I/we represent and guarantee compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations related to the transportation, import and subsequent EU market access of the goods to be carried by FedEx, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2023/956 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 10 May 2023 establishing a carbon border adjustment mechanism (the CBAM Regulation). Specifically, if and when importing goods under the scope of the CBAM Regulation originating in a third country into the customs territory of the European Union, I acknowledge my reporting obligations as established in the CBAM Regulation.
