

FEDEX EXPRESS

ASIA PACIFIC, MIDDLE EAST, AND AFRICA (AMEA) FACTS

ESTABLISHED OPERATIONS:

1984 in Asia Pacific
1989 in the Middle East
1997 in India (previously through GSP)
2014 in South Africa (previously through GSP)
2019 in Oman (previously through GSP)
2020 in Kenya (previously through GSP)
2021 in Saudi Arabia, Indonesia, Jordan, and Egypt (previously through GSP)
2022 in Cambodia, Nigeria (previously through GSP)

HEADQUARTERS:

Singapore

SUB-REGIONAL HEADQUARTERS:

Mainland China – Shanghai, China
North Pacific – Tokyo, Japan
Southeast Asia – Singapore
Australasia – Sydney, Australia
Middle East, India, and Africa – Mumbai, India

PRINCIPAL OFFICER AMEA:

Kawal Preet, Regional President

EMPLOYEES:

About 35,000

AMEA HUB(s):

Guangzhou Baiyun International Airport, Guangzhou, China
Kansai International Airport, Osaka, Japan
Changi International Airport, Singapore
Pudong International Airport, Shanghai, China
Dubai International Airport, Dubai, U.A.E.

COUNTRIES & TERRITORIES SERVED:

100

AIRCRAFT OPERATING:

B767F, B777F and MD-11

VEHICLE FLEET:

About 9,000