Fuel surcharge

The fuel surcharge is defined according to trade rates for diesel provided by PKN Orlen. It is charged based on the net service value listed on the invoice for a given period.

The base price for determining the fuel surcharge is the price (arithmetic average calculated for the prices from the 1st, 15th, and the last day of the month) of the month preceding the date of shipping. FedEx reserves the right to change the method of charging the fuel surcharge.

Road surcharge

The road surcharge is 6.5% of the net service value – it will be included on the invoice for a given period. FedEx reserves the right to change the method of calculating the surcharge.

Find the current rate of the fuel surcharge online at fedex.com/pl.
