China FedEx International Third Party Service Regions

For Payers in China

Effective January 5, 2026

Overview

China FedEx International Third Party Service provides the rates in Chinese Yuan for international shipments of which the freight cost is to be paid by a third party in China. It covers shipments with the air waybill indicating the 'Bill Third-Party' payment option that are from non-China origins to non-China destinations and the freight cost paid by a China customer.

How to Calculate the charges for China FedEx International Third Party Service

1. For your China FedEx International Third Party shipment, find the region for origin and destination in the tables below. The same step applies for determining origin and destination region.
2. Using the zone chart on page 3, find the origin region in the vertical listing and find the destination region in the horizontal listing. The letter listed in the intersection is your list-rate zone.
3. Determine your total shipment weight.
4. Choose the service you wish to use. For FedEx International Priority Freight, FedEx International Economy Freight and FedEx® International Deferred Freight, determine your service option (Door-to-Door, Door-to-Airport, Airport-to-Door, or Airport-to-Airport).
5. Find the rate for your zone, service and weight combination using the rate tables.
6. For fees and other non-transportation charges, please refer to the Surcharge and Other Information for details.

   - Origin OO to Destination OA = Zone 3
