

FedEx Express India service updates due to COVID-19 outbreak

As India adjusts to the ongoing impact of COVID-19, various states within the country are taking necessary steps to contain the spread of the virus. The situation on the ground continues to be dynamic in terms of restrictions identified by the respective state authorities.

You may experience temporary service delays owing to local restrictions. Prior to finalizing your shipment, please write to india@fedex.com or contact your FedEx sales representative to know if the postal code in India is currently serviceable.
