

Regulatory News Alerts & Updates

Regulatory Alert: Fiji VAT Rate Change from August 1, 2025

July 30, 2025

Background details

The Fijian Government has announced that the Value-Added Tax (VAT) rate for taxable supplies previously subject to the rate of 15% will change to 12.5% from August 1, 2025.

Accordingly, from August 1, 2025, FedEx fees (including shipping rates and surcharges), which were previously subject to 15% VAT, will now be subject to 12.5% VAT.

For more details, please visit Fiji 2025-2026 National Budget Address:

<https://www.fiji.gov.fj/Media-Centre/Speeches/English/2025-2026-NATIONAL-BUDGET-ADDRESS>

Q & A

Q 1 - Why is there a VAT cut?

A 1 -The VAT cut is contained within the 2025-26 National Budget. Please view the 2025-2026 National Budget Address for more information: <https://www.fiji.gov.fj/Media-Centre/Speeches/English/2025-2026-NATIONAL-BUDGET-ADDRESS>

Q 2 - What fees are impacted?

A 2 -All FedEx Express Fiji's shipping fees and surcharges that were previously subject to the rate of 15% VAT.

Timeline for implementation: August 1, 2025

References

Fiji Government website

<https://www.fiji.gov.fj/Media-Centre/Speeches/English/2025-2026-NATIONAL-BUDGET-ADDRESS>

Fiji Revenue and Customs Service

<https://frcs.org.fj/>