

Retailers Wine Shipping State Reference Guide

The Retailers Wine Shipping State Reference Guide is a resource for licensed retailers that have executed a FedEx Alcohol Shipping Agreement with FedEx and want to tender packages of wine to FedEx Express and FedEx Ground for transport to consumers. A consumer shipment includes any shipment destined for a residence. FedEx only accepts shipments of wine from licensed shippers that have executed a FedEx Alcohol Shipping Agreement with FedEx.

The terms of shipping are governed by the FedEx Service Guide, FedEx Alcohol Shipping Agreement, and any applicable rate agreement. The shipper is responsible for knowing and complying with all applicable laws and regulations in both the origin and destination states, including any state requirement that the shipper hold a direct to consumer permit or license prior to shipping into the state. The shipper is also responsible for determining whether they and the consignee meet all applicable requirements and whether such a shipment may be legally transported by common carrier.

This guide does not apply to shipments made by wineries. Wineries should refer to the Wineries Wine Shipping State Reference Guide.

This guide does not constitute legal advice and only reflects FedEx Express and FedEx Ground policies regarding where FedEx will transport wine shipments on behalf of retail customers. Shippers may need a license or permit to ship into certain states. Please consult an attorney for information regarding the wine shipping laws in each state.

¹Deliveries via FedEx Express are limited to the Anchorage, Juneau, Fairbanks, Kenai, Sitka, Valdez, and Wasilla areas only. Deliveries via FedEx Ground are limited to Anchorage, Juneau, Fairbanks, Kenai, and Wasilla areas only. Shipping direct to consumers in these Alaska ZIP codes is allowed.

²Per state reciprocal laws, shipments are only allowed from those retailers in states recognized as also allowing direct to consumer wine shipping by out-of-state retailers.

³Florida may contain areas known as dry towns/counties that prohibit direct-to-consumer alcohol shipments. As expressed in the FedEx Alcohol Shipper Agreement, it is the responsibility of the shipper to fully comply with all federal, state, and local laws, rules, regulations, and orders applicable to shipments of alcohol. Please contact the appropriate state alcohol beverage commission for more information.

⁴Direct Shipper permits are required; contact New Hampshire Liquor Commission (603-271-8543). Alcohol shipments are prohibited to dry town: Ellsworth.

⁵Shipping direct to consumers in these West Virginia ZIP codes, cities, or counties may be prohibited under applicable law.
