FedEx One Rate® Special Pricing (Effective July 14, 2025 - October 26, 2025)

FedEx One Rate, a flat rate pricing option, is available for qualifying FedEx U.S. shipments. FedEx One Rate pricing is an alternative to FedEx® Standard List Rates, account-specific rates or FedEx® Retail Rates. Shippers can use FedEx packaging (envelopes, paks, and boxes) or their own, customer packaging for paks and boxes; provided, however, that the dimensions of any customer pak or box must not exceed the defined volume range (in cubic inches) of the FedEx packing type selected by the shipper. Customer envelopes are ineligible for this pricing program, and shippers must use envelopes provided by FedEx. If the customer packaging does exceed the defined volume range for that packaging type (as determined by the FedEx rating system), the shipper's package will be rated based on the packing type rate applicable to the package's system-calculated volume.

About These Rate Tables

In the rate tables that follow:

- FedEx One Rate includes any applicable residential surcharges, delivery area surcharges and fuel surcharge.
- FedEx One Rate is subject to other charges, including, but not limited to, on-call pickup, Saturday delivery, FedEx® Delivery Signature Options, additional declared value, and address or account corrections.
- Shippers can use their own custom packaging for paks and boxes or FedEx packaging (envelopes, paks, and boxes) for FedEx U.S. package services (FedEx Express Saver®, FedEx 2Day®, FedEx 2Day® A.M., FedEx Standard Overnight®, FedEx Priority Overnight®, and FedEx First Overnight®).
- Rates shown below may be higher, before discounts are applied, than some FedEx One Rate list rates.
- To qualify for FedEx One Rate pricing, FedEx envelopes must weigh 10 lbs. or less, and FedEx paks, boxes, and tubes must weigh 50 lbs. or less.
- For all other FedEx One Rate services and packing types not shown in the tables below, see the FedEx Service Guide at fedex.com/en-us/service-guide.html for the applicable rates.
